

Women's Fishing Contest

...ready to get your pole bent?

WFC website is up and running!

www.womensfishingcontest.com

email: info@womensfishingcontest.com

We are very pleased to will offer current news, fun announce that the WFC & interesting links and website is live! The web photos. Check it out and hosting and creation has please send your photos, been donated by Vencio fish tales and comments to of St Paul, MN. Lauren the email address above, Rawlings, Vencio's Master your contribution is Designer did an excellent needed. Nadinne Juve has job. with the design. Thank volunteered to take team you Lauren and Vencio photos 1 hour before the for your generous gift to contest so get there early WFC. The WFC website wearing your smile!

Sharing the prize in 2007

The Get Err Done Girls and we may have to get more docks Catch of the Day tied for 1st at Wolf's Den for all the boats place last year with each team entering in the future. So clear hauling in 27 lbs of fish! Smart your calendars ladies Monday Basses came in 2nd with 14 lbs May 19th 10 am for the 5th and 3rd place went to Commu- Annual Women's Fishing Con- nity Sanitation with 6 lbs. There test. Remember to get your Fish were 9 teams last year, the most -o-Rama buttons at Wolf's Den since the contest started 5 years to win cash for those tagged fish ago. Word must be getting out, you'll catch! See you all there!

Sheila Wells brings in the big one

The catch of the day went to Sheila Wells of Rosco, IL. Sheila, member of the Pussy Pirates, reeled in an 11^{1/2}" crappie taking home braggin' rights for biggest fish 2007. Great catch Sheila!!!

Rules for 2008

Last year WFC incorpo- out of the lake. WFC will rated size rules besides WI continue with the same DNR rules that made rules for the 2008 con- things a little more inter- test: esting. Keepers had to be 1)only 6 poles in the water at least 8" for pan fish and at one time 7" for blue gill. There were 2)WFC size rules along still a lot of fish that came with WI DNR rules.

Donations and Appreciation

Great thanks goes to Wild Bills ways for allowing WFC to take Outpost, Northwoods Liquor, over their place for the day and Vencio and Back Country Sports for providing food. Last but cer- tainly not least, thanks to all the wonderful volunteers, we appre- ciate all that you do for us.. CHEERS TO YOU ALL!!!

c/o Avia McDonald
2353 Youngman Ave #321
St Paul, MN 55116

Contributors:

www.riverpointmedia.com

www.vencio.com

GABORSKY
LAW OFFICE, LLC
KELLI A. GABORSKY
ATTORNEY AT LAW

www.gaborskylaw.com

Northwoods Liquor • Wolf's Den Resort & Tavern • Back Country Sports

James (Jim) Lancaster

WFC and Wolf's Den said good bye to a dear friend shortly after last years fishing contest. Jim Lancaster past away June 2007. Jim was a volunteer and a great cheerleader for all the women in the Women's Fishing Contest since it began in 2004. Jim is very much missed and will be forever loved and remembered...thank you Jim for the years you gave us and for being a good man with a great heart.